Description of the point-rating system

Conditions and criteria for grading. Students are required to attend lectures and seminars, participate in certification tests, and complete teacher assignments. Active work at the seminar is especially appreciated (the ability to conduct a discussion, a creative approach to the analysis of materials, the ability to clearly and succinctly formulate their thoughts), as well as the quality of preparation of control papers (tests), presentations and reports.

Grades in the disciplines taught are set based on the results of the study demonstrated by students throughout the entire period of study (usually a semester). The final grade is determined by the sum of points received by students for various types of work during the entire period of study provided by the curriculum.

All types of educational work are carried out exactly within the time limits stipulated by the training program. If a student has not completed any of the training tasks without valid reasons (missed a test, passed an abstract later than the due date, etc.), then points are not awarded to him for this type of academic work, and works prepared later than the due date are not evaluated. For various types of work during the entire period of study, a student can receive a maximum amount of 100 points.
