II Scientific school for young researchers 1st November – 10th November 2024

We are pleased to announce the acceptance of applications for The Second Scientific School for young researchers in Zambia!

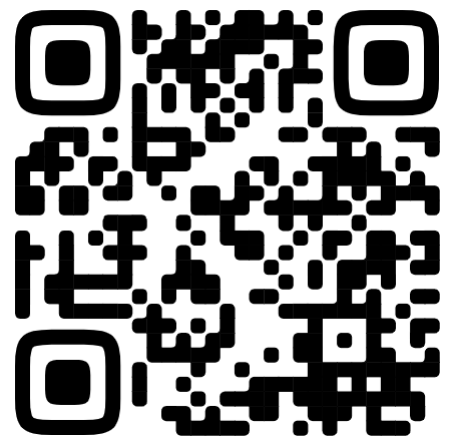

Bachelor and Master students are invited to participate. The scientific school includes formal and informal, cultural activities. You can find schedule of the school on the website.

Website: <https://sci-school.su/zambian>

The purpose of the scientific school is to provide students with practical knowledge and skills in organizing and conducting foreign economic activities between Russia and African countries.

The program includes lectures and master classes from government representatives, leading experts, and representatives from business and international organizations.

Participants will also visit a special economic zone, a stock exchange, and the central bank in Lusaka. Cultural events are also scheduled.
