1. EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMME GOAL (MISSION)

The purpose of the program "International Economic Relations" is to train competent, competitive and highly qualified international economists capable of working in large Russian and international companies operating in Russia and abroad in the ever-changing conditions of global economy and establishment of a new world economic order.

2. EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMME RELEVANCE, SPECIFICITY, AND UNIQUENESS

In the current stage of the global economy's development, every company, enterprise, and financial institution is engaged in foreign economic activities. The era of globalization has led to the permeation of international economic relations throughout all aspects of our lives.

Graduates with a bachelor's degree in "International Economic Relations " possess the necessary theoretical knowledge and practical skills to engage in professional activities in the fields of international trade in goods and services, international finance, international monetary and credit relations, international trade in intellectual property, international settlements, and investment activities.

The program is designed to cater to individuals who wish to apply their economic knowledge at an international level.

The term "economist in the field of international economic relations" is a broad concept that encompasses several specialized professions. In various organizations, graduates may be involved in customs declaration of goods, identifying and establishing international partnerships, analyzing foreign markets, consulting on international trade contracts, minimizing financial risks, conducting international procurement of goods and services, managing international settlements, developing international business strategies, optimizing taxation for multinational corporations, attracting international financial resources, engaging in stock market transactions, and expanding the client base abroad.

The profession of an international economist has always been, and continues to be, highly esteemed and well-compensated.

3. LABOUR MARKET NEEDS FOR PERSONNEL TRAINING IN EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMME PROFILE

The program is focused on training specialists capable of defending the national economic interests both in their own country and abroad. Within the framework of the program, the features of conducting international business are studied, both at the level of integration groupings and at the level of individual countries.

After mastering the program, graduates will be able to realize their knowledge: in foreign representative offices of Russian companies, in trade missions, business councils and chambers of commerce and industry in various countries of the world; in multinational companies and investment banks

4. SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS FOR POTENTIAL APPLICANTS

The applicant must have a state document on secondary (full) general education or secondary vocational education.
